

INNORAIL INDIA 2022

The Innovation Show for Rail Transportation Sector

17-19 November, 2022 | RDSO, Lucknow, UP

Innovations | Designs | Prototypes

The fifth edition of InnoRail India 2022, International Exhibition and Conference for Innovations in Rail Transportation Sector, organized by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), in association with Research Designs & Standards Organisation (RDSO), Ministry of Railways, is held from 17 to 19 November, 2022 at Railway Stadium Grounds, RDSO, Lucknow, UP, India. InnoRail India 2022 is also supported by the UP Metro Rail Corporation Limited (UPMRC).

Innovations in Indian Railways is a continuous process, and the industry is a partner in this with Indian Railways

Ribbon cutting ceremony of the InnoRail India Exhibition in progress

125+ Exhibitors

Representation of 15 Countries

7000+ Visitors

300+ Conference Delegates

with active support, and participation, of RDSO. The event is aimed at creating a neutral platform for knowledge sharing amongst industry, experts from various sectors, and the Indian Railways. InnoRail India, serves as a platform for Indian Railways to identify and address the needs of innovations for its future expansion and modernization plans.

for a long time. From the steam engines to today's high powered electrically charged engines, innovation has played a major role in Indian Railways' modernization programmes.

The InnoRail India, with special focus on Innovations was introduced in 2014

InnoRail India 2022 exhibition had participation of over 125 companies representing 10 countries – showcasing latest products, innovations and technologies that are available for the Indian Railways – in an exclusive area of 15000 sqmtrs of exhibition space.

L-R: Mr Thierry Lassus, Sr.Vice President & Head Industry Network Leader – Transport, Hitachi Energy, Switzerland; Mr Mangal Dev, Chairman, Conferences – InnoRail 2022 & Head – Hitachi Railways, India & South Asia & Director - Hitachi India Pvt Ltd; Dr Atul Gupta, Addl. Member (Railway Stores), Ministry of Railway; Mr Sanjiv Bhutani, Director General, RDSO, Mr Sushil Kumar, Managing Director, Uttar Pradesh Metro Rail Corporation Ltd; Mr Vinamra Agarwal, Chairman, CII Uttar Pradesh & Director, Technical Associates Ltd; Mr Amit Srivastava, ED – Research, RDSO

The InnoRail India 2022 Exhibition and Conference was jointly Inaugurated by Mr Sanjiv Bhutani, Director General, RDSO and Dr Atul Gupta, Additional Member (Stores), Railway Board, Ministry of Railways, along with key people from Industry and Railways attending the event.

InnoRail India 2022 with a clear focus on innovations, showcased latest innovations and technologies covering areas of rolling stock, high speed rail transportation, modern infrastructure solutions, advanced signaling, passenger safety & security, information technology services, modern railway stations, advanced software solutions in manufacturing & production, preventive maintenance & diagnosis systems, water & environment management, etc.

CII & RDSO jointly organized Panel sessions on select topics, as concurrent events during the InnoRail India 2022 – which facilitated meaningful dialogues and interaction amongst decision makers for engaging the industry in an effective manner to help the Indian Railways to better the efficiency of Rail Transportation in India.

7000+ people participated from from industry, academia, global technical experts, and decision makers from RDSO, Indian Railways, representatives from various Metro Units in India, government officials and media representatives

The visitors to InnoRail India 2022 included key officials from Indian Railways, like Additional Member (Stores), Additional Member (Railway Electrification), Additional Member (Works), General Managers from Production Units, and Zonal Railways, etc.

GALLERY

